

Partner Application

What is a Partner?

The Ohio Jump$Start Coalition for Personal Financial Literacy, a 501(c)(3) non-profit educational organization, brings together like-minded organizations to work collectively and collaboratively to advance financial literacy among kindergarten through college aged students.

Partners are individuals and organizations who recognize and support the lifetime benefits of personal financial education. Including teachers, corporations, CPA's, banks, credit unions, not-for-profits, school administrators, school districts, boards of education, parents and students.

Benefits

- Networking with others who are committed to improving the financial education
- Keeping informed of national and statewide efforts and issues in youth financial education
- Participating in personal financial education community meetings
- Having access to Jump$Start-sponsored surveys and research
- Publicizing efforts to the personal finance education community
- Becoming a member of the largest coalition of its kind in Ohio and the US

Financial Support—Your Tax Deductable donation is very much appreciated!

The annual fund supports the day-to-day operations of the Coalition and makes some of our most important work possible. Whether an educator is seeking curricular advice, a financial service professional is looking for an opportunity to work with a classroom, a partner wants to explore a new initiative, or a member of the media is seeking information for a story, the Coalition's daily work greatly benefits the citizens of Ohio.

The suggested giving levels are:

- For-profit Partners--$500
- Non-profit Partners--$250
- Individual Partners--$50
- Please note that financial support is not a requirement for Partnership. If you are unable to provide financial support we would greatly appreciate any in-kind support you can provide.
