

Daniel N. Hebert
Senior Director of Education
JumpStart Coalition for Personal Financial Literacy

As Senior Director of Education, Dan Hebert is JumpStart's principal liaison to our nation's teachers, overseeing the JumpStart National Educator Conference and the JumpStart Financial Foundations for Educators programs. He works closely with consultants on the JumpStart Financial Inclusion Initiative and Check Your School Campaign.

In addition to his national role, Dan helped to form the New Hampshire JumpStart Coalition in 1999, an all-volunteer state affiliate of the national organization. A strong advocate for personal finance education, he has served as state president of NH JumpStart since its formation.

From 2002 -2011, Dan was the Executive Director of New Hampshire Partners in Education, a statewide nonprofit organization dedicated to promotion, training and growth of school volunteer programs and efforts throughout the state. As an independent consultant, he also took on the role as part-time Executive Director of Financial Literacy through Edu-Tainment, a New York-based nonprofit organization, which educated children 6-12 and 13-18 by using entertainment to present key concepts, so that children enjoy developing their financial skills.

Previously, Dan was Vice President of Consumer Lending for St. Mary's Bank with responsibility for all consumer loan administration, including loan origination, credit card portfolio management, and collections. His consumer loan background began with AVCO Financial Services and grew through his work experience with other New Hampshire banks.

He has served as President of the NH Consumer Credit Association and was a two-term member of the Professional Standards Board within the NH Department of Education. He served a six-year term with the National Consumers League in Washington, D.C. and was the past Vice-Chair of the board of directors of the New Hampshire Higher Education Assistance Foundation. Additionally, he served as a member of the New Hampshire Children's Savings Account Program Commission.
